

Fr. Brad A. Held, S.J., was born and raised in Slinger, WI. He is a graduate of Marquette University (2006). As a novice, Brad worked on the parish staff of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Mankato, Minnesota while serving as a deacon at the New Roads Catholic Community in Belmont, Massachusetts. He was next missioned to Fordham University in the Bronx, New York, where he earned a master's degree in philosophical resources. He then served as a teacher, campus minister and chair of the spiritual formation department at Red Cloud High School on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota for three years. At the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry, Fr. Held earned a Master of Divinity degree. Following ordination in 2016, Fr. Held work at the Church of the Gesu in University Heights, Ohio. He currently serves as the assistant director of Campus Ministry Pastoral and Service Programs at Marquette University High School in Milwaukee.