

Father Jack Treloar, S.J. entered the Society of Jesus in 1957 at the novitiate in Florissant, Missouri. He taught high school in St. Louis and was ordained in 1970 by Most Reverend James V. Casey in Denver Co. Fr. Jack has earned advanced degrees in Philosophy and Dogmatic/Systemic Theology from St. Louis University and a doctorate from Michigan State University. Over the ensuing fifty-five years, as a professor, scholar, lecturer, author and academic administrator, Fr. Jack's ministry has taken him back to St. Louis University and Marquette University (Milwaukee, WI) and to the Jesuit School of Theology (Berkeley, CA), most recently to the provincial offices of the WI Province of the Society of Jesus. His special fields of interest are the History of Medieval Philosophy and the philosophy of Kant. We are blessed to have Fr. Jack on staff here at the Jesuit Retreat House.
