

Fr. Jack Callahan, SJ was born in Plymouth Wisconsin in 1939. He entered the Wisconsin Province of the Jesuits in 1957. Ordained in 1970, he spent over 35 years in Jesuit higher education administration (fund raising and Ignatian identity) at Creighton, Regis, Rockhurst and St Louis universities. He was also rector of the Jesuit communities at Regis and Rockhurst. After serving as pastoral assistant on the Missouri Province provincial staff, he has been preaching retreats at Manresa House of Retreats in Convent Louisiana since 2010.