

Mr. David Kiblinger, SJ is from Cape Girardeau, MO, and attended Truman State University (Physics/Math) and Villanova University (Theology) prior to entering the Society of Jesus in 2011. After novitiate in Louisiana, he completed philosophy studies at Saint Louis University. During regency, he taught 7th and 8th grade math at Colegio San Ignacio in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where he also coached soccer and moderated a Marian sodality. He spent one year at Notre Dame doing additional philosophy coursework before moving to his current residence at Boston College in 2018 to continue his theology studies in preparation for ordination in 2021.