

Fr. Phillip T. Cooke, S.J., is a priest of the United States Midwest Province of the Society of Jesus. He currently ministers as the associate pastor of Gesu Church in Detroit where he spends time both in the parish and grade school. He has worked at the University of Detroit Mercy where he founded the Center for Social Entrepreneurship and at Red Cloud Indian School where he taught high school and was a pastor. He has a passion for walking with youth especially those most at risk.